Look down at the body you may see no trace of wounds but in the eye
the eye of the beholder one cannot assume.

Not a drop of blood is drawn but you know how it bleeds beware of the sharp edged weapon called human being

It is a shield of passion and strong will from this I am the victor instead of the kill

I will not feed your hunger, instead I bite the pain looking not back, but forward I bite down hard try to cover up the trail of deceit and daggers spawned from your soul

[Solo Hamm/Schuldiner]

Acid, the tears of remorse flow in vain, too late for regrets save it for the next ill fated game.
