"If Only You Believe"

If I could I would take all the sadness in your life
Throw it on my back, and haul it away
If I could I would take all the tears you ever cried
Pull them in the sea, and that's where they'd stay

CHORUS

Let me be your Jesus for tonight
Let me make you believe
I'll turn your tears to smiles like water into wine
If you'll only believe
If you believe in me

I can't walk the water and I can't raise the dead
I can't depend the sun or the moon
But love is shine you pulled me and I know that I can help
And I know that I can heal some of your wounds

(Chorus x2)
