We lit the fire and watched the rain
I wrote a message on the misty window-pane
It said "I'm so in love with you"
You smiled and said you loved me too, so long ago
Yes I remember it so well
Just like a fairytale, our love's a magic spell
So many dreams, so many plans
All over hopes were in our hands, where did they go ?

It's not too late to start again, to find the love that we had then
We've seen it slowly drift away, a little further every day
Just we can have it all again, it's not too late to start again

I still see love within your eyes
And now and then, we feel the passion start to rise
But moments are so very few
And not at all like what we knew, so long ago
We find the words are hard to say
The same sweet words that came so easy yesterday
They must be crying out inside
Waiting to you and I decide which way to go

It's not too late to start again, to find the love that we had then
We've seen it slowly drift away, a little further every
Just we can have it all again, it's not too late to start
again

We lit the fire and watched the rain
I wrote a message on the misty window-pane
It said "I'm so in love with you"
You smiled and said you loved me too, so long ago.
