Are you ready man? Gotta play some harp on your song...

Twenty-four years have gone by
You never know what they see inside of you
Where there's a place they'll never reach
And nobody you can share it with
I wanna try everything I can

Then maybe I'll decide which way to go
I always feel I can get better than this
We've got women using their brains
Just when they fall in love
We've got men trying to fight each night
Without their pride

And I really don't know what it takes to feel alive
Yeah, to feel alive
I'm waiting for someone to come and rescue me
Won't you come and rescue me?
Won't you come and rescue me?

Twenty-four years have gone by
Still don't have a clue 'bout what I'm doing with my life
Sometimes I wonder if I'll make it through this time
And every day and night I hide behind my right to feel alive

Sometimes I think I'm just fooling myself
Sometimes I'm sure that's the only way I can be
You gotta be open-minded if you don't wanna fall apart
If you don't wanna read your story filled with no, no, no!

And I really don't know what it takes to feel alive
Yeah, to feel alive
I'm waiting for someone to come and rescue me
Won't you come and rescue me?
And I really don't know what it takes to feel so good
Mmm, so good

Iâ'm waiting for someone to come and rescue me

(Won't you come?)

Won't you come?

(Rescue me)

Rescue me

(Won't you come?)

Won't you come?

(Rescue me)

Rescue me!

And I really don't know what it takes to feel alive

Mmm, to feel alive

Iâ'm waiting for someone to come and rescue me

Won't you come and rescue me?

And I really don't know what it takes to feel so good

Yeah, so good

Iâ'm waiting for someone to come and rescue me

(Won't you come?)

Won't you come?

(Rescue me)

Rescue me

(Won't you come?)

Won't you come?

And I really don't know what it takes to feel so good

(Won't you come?)

Won't you come?

(Rescue me)

Rescue me

(Won't you come?)

Won't you come?

(Rescue me)

Won't you come and rescue me?

Yeah, what it takes to feel so good...

(Feel alive)

What it takes to feel alive

(Feel alive)

What it takes to feel so go good

(Feel alive)

To feel alive...

(Feel alive)

Yeah, to feel alive...

Man?

Aahh?

Man, we gotta do it 'n we did it right...

I hope we did it right...

But I hope... I hope you understand

But... Let's go...
