Iâ'm here walkin' this street
It's been a lifetime ago
When all their faces have turned to stone
Just waiting for the sun to pass through the sky
It ain't so easy when the world is covered by lies

The rain may fall all over my shoulders
But there's no way it's gonna wash away the pain
No, it ain't so easy when the world is fallin' down

But I found a way to pray
I found a way to pray for you

Believe in me
I'll stay by your side
But don't take away the strength to carry on
From deep in my heart
(Deep in my heart)
From deep in your heart
(Deep in your heart)
Deep down there

Believe in me
I'll stay by your side
(Stay by your side)
But don't take away the strength to carry on

Iâ'm still walkin' this street
It's been a lifetime ago
When all their faces have turned to dust
Just waiting for the wind to blow them away
No, they'll never be the same
You know the wind can take you away

But I found a way to pray
(Deep in my heart)
Will you found a way to pray for me?
(Deep in your heart)
For me...
Believe in me
I'll stay by your side
And don't take away the strength to carry on

From deep in my heart
(Deep in my heart)
From deep in your heart
(Deep in your heart)
(Your heart, my heart)
From deep in my heart
(Deep in my heart)
From deep in your... Ooh, woah...
(Deep in your heart)
Baby, give the strength to carry on... To me

(Deep in my heart)
(Deep in your heart)
(Deep in my heart)
