I don't wanna be a star
Make up your mind! Ha, ha, ha...

Woah, yeah!

Walking down Hollywood Boulevard
All the stars were burning under my shoes
I wonder... What's the price they had to pay to lay there?
(All those broken dreams... For what?)

Then I came back to my hometown
There are no stars stuck on the streets, no...
But I can see all the characters around me
I wonder what's my role in this masquerade

All we need is a better place
Yeah, where we all stay together
And this place lies within our minds
Ah, you've gotta start thinking about it
And make up your mind

I don't wanna be a star
I still wanna be a human being
They say that it's a wild, wild ride
I don't wanna be a star
And I said I still wanna be a human being
'Cuz it's a wild, wild ride... Woah, yeah!

(Make up your mind! Ha, ha, ha...)

Homes filled with wives... So angry with life
Bars full of men drinking for discontent
Some people jump higher they know how to jam
But we're all the same, that's what I think, yeah

All we need is a better place
Yeah, where we all stay together
And this place lies within our minds
I said you've gotta start thinking about it
And make up your mind

I don't wanna be a star
I still wanna be a human being
They say that it's a wild, wild ride
I don't wanna be a star
And I said I still wanna be a human being
'Cuz it's a wild, wild ride... Yeah!

Ooh... I don't wanna be a star...

I don't wanna be a star
I still wanna be a human being
They say that it's a wild, wild ride
(They say that it's a wild ride)
I don't wanna be a star
And I said I still wanna be a human being
'Cuz it's a wild, wild ride... Yeah!

I don't wanna be a star
I still wanna be a human being
They say that it's a wild, wild ride
(They say that it's a wild ride)
I don't wanna be a star
And I said I still wanna be a human being
'Cuz it's a wild, wild ride
They say that it's a wild ride.
