You told me I would be the King
You told me it takes time for you to be my Queen
In the castle inside my head
You say you want to stay with me
To be part of me you don't need to have the key
Of the castle inside my head

But now I realize love is always a one way street
Where there's really no reason to pass somebody by

What is that thing that keeps you away from me?
Where is the love that you said you would give?
What is that thing that keeps you away from me?
I know I've lost a game I've never played
(Game never played)
I've lost a game I've never played
(Game never played)

Here I am like a fool
Waiting for a sign from above
You say you don't believe in it anymore, no
Whatever he's done to you...
What about what you're doing to me?
The bridge of the castle is broken inside my head

And now I realize love is always a one way street
And there's really no reason to pass somebody by
The way you pass me by

What is that thing that keeps you away from me?
Where is the love that you said you would give?
What is that thing that keeps you away from me?
Mmm, tell me... I know I've lost a game I've never played
(Game never played)
I've lost a game I've never played
(Game never played)
Ooh, I just played it inside my head
But now I realize love is always a one way street, yeah
And there's really no reason to pass somebody by
The way you pass me by

What is that thing that keeps you away from me?
(Away from me...)
Where is the love that you said you would give?
(You said you would give...)
What is that thing that keeps you away from me?
I know Iâ€™ve lost a game Iâ€™ve never played
(Game never played)
Iâ€™ve lost a game Iâ€™ve never played, ooh yeah
(Game never played)
I just played it inside my head
(Game never played)
Iâ€™ve lost a game Iâ€™ve never played
I just played it inside my head
(Game never played)
