You've got the rattle in your heart now, honey
You want it bad, you almost fuel the flames
You come unraveled, and it just ain't funny
An uphill battle in a losing game

Around the corner there's a big train coming
(something something) Christmas in the middle of July
Yeah you can almost hear the whistle blowing
You've got to fall before you learn to fly

Good love don't come easy
Yeah good love can be so hard
But you stick it out
Work it out
Hit the ground running
And you don't give up
Until you find that good good love

Mom always told me it was complicated
Anything worth having is worth fighting for
Said not to settle 'cause you'll wind up jaded
It'll leave you empty, only wanting more
So pack your bags what are you waiting for?

Good love don't come easy
Yeah good love can be so hard
But you stick it out
Work it out
Hit the ground running
And you don't give up
Until you find that good good love

Its what everybody wants
What everybody needs
And even when it's bad
It's good good love
And it makes the world go round
Its looking for you now
So don't give up
I won't let you give up

Oh, good love don't come easy
Yeah good love can be so hard
But you stick it out
Work it out
Hit the ground running
And you don't give up
Until you find that good good love
