Empty cup, Broken plate
All those things you never say
Don't you know by now I can take it as it is
The sky is dark
Full of rain, it ain't ever gonna change
The words are written on your face
Go on and say it
Go on and say it
Go on and say it

Don't you give me that long goodbye
Don't stick around and make it worse
Don't leave me hanging on all night
To every petty little word
Yea Don't you drag me down that road
Of miles and miles and miles of hurt
Don't you give me that long goodbye

Make it fast, make it sweet
Pull the world out from under my feet
Don't you worry a thing about me, cause I'll make it
Give me the truth I'll understand
Cause things don't work out like you planned
Then my heart is in your hands, go on and break it
Oh I can take it
Girl I can take it

Don't you give me that long goodbye
Don't stick around and make it worse
Don't leave me hanging on all night
To every petty little word
Don't you drag me down that road
Of miles and miles and miles of hurt
Don't you give me that long goodbye

Oh I promise I won't cry
You won't see a teardrop fall
I'm a big girl after all
I can take it
I can take it
I can take it

Don't you give me that long goodbye
Don't stick around and make it worse
Don't leave me hanging on all night
To every petty little word
Yea Don't you give me that long goodbye
Don't stick around and make it worse
Don't leave me hanging on all night
To every petty little word
Yea Don't you drag me down that road
Of miles and miles and miles of hurt
Don't you give me that long goodbye
Don't you give me that long goodbye

Long goodbye
Long goodbye
Don't you cry
