Well you stole my heart, and I'll get it back
But look me in the eye babe
Tell me why you love me like that?
Why you love me like that ooh oh?

Well I've walked this world
Five times or more
And after all this walkin' babe
You still got me crawlin' on the floor
Crawlin' in the floor

And now I know
(And now I know)
This world
(This world)
Keeps on turnin'
(Turning)
Keeps me yearnin'

How, can you turn and walk away?
Pretending everything's okay
How can you turn your back?
Tell me why you love me like that?
Why you love me like that ooh oh?

Well I thought you'd listen
But I'm shattered like broken glass
Well I thought that we'd be different babe
Yea I thought that we would last
Yea I thought that we would last

And now I know
(And now I know)
This world
(This world)
Keeps on spinning
(Spinning)
Every minute that your in it

How, can you turn and walk away?
Pretending everything's okay
How can you turn your back?

Tell me why you love me like that?
Why you love me like that ooh oh?

Love me or leave me baby but don't, lead me on
With lovin' like yours believe me I'm better off
I'm better off alone, hoo ohh

Well I was your gypsy
Throwing diamonds at your feet
Drifted 'round you like a satellite
Gave you everythin' you need
Everythin' you need

And I know
(And I know)
This world
(This world)
Keeps on turnin'
(Turning)
Keeps me yarnin' and yarnin'

How, can you turn and walk away?
Pretending everything's okay
How can you turn your back?
Tell me why you gonna love me like that?
Why ya love me like that ooh oh?

Oh how can you just break away?
Why can't you find the words to say?
Love is somethin' you work at
Tell me why you love me like that?
Why you love me like that?
Why you love me like that? Oh

How can you throw us away?
Look at what you lost today
Now everything in shades of gray
And now your pushin' me away
Say all the things you need to say
Thought we were going all the way
Play all the games you want to play
Slowly we just fade away
