Yeah, I'll take the train, dear and I'll meet you there I'll cross oceans and deserts as you fly into the air

though you'd much rather fly I'll be speeding past the scenery as you watch clouds float by yeah, I don't know why I'm afraid to fly but I'm taking this train to your heart yeah, I'll take the bus, dear passing through those little towns it may take me some extra time, love but these wheels won't let me down

yeah, I don't know why I'm afraid to fly but I'm taking this Greyhound bus to your heart yeah, I'll take the boat, dear oh it may take me days I'll be making my pilgrimage gently riding on these waves yeah, I don't--I don't know why I'm afraid to fly one thing I'm sure to know is I'm taking this train or this bus or this boat to your heart to your heart
