Running and tripping,
I'm barely hanging on
Got nothing but, time to think about everything wrong
Wheels spinning through another town
And my sense of reason is long gone
Gravity of truth, that pushes me on to you,
It's something bigger than us
And it's all I can do
Can you feel me now?
Can you feel me now?
As I'm standing on the edge of the world looking down
I could jump and fly or fall to the ground
But I'll get to you somehow
Did you think You were special
When you were young?
Look around, at all the faces
You're just like everyone
Lost in a hole of wanna-be
When you find you've heard it before,
Could you ever be satisfied?
Could you fill that endless ache for more?
Can you feel me now?
Can you feel me now?

As I'm standing on the edge of the world looking down
I could jump and fly or fall to the ground
But I'll get to you somehow
If all in all is all we are
Can you hear me yet?
And I believe, eventually it will makes sense
Can you feel me yet?
Can you feel me now?
Can you feel me now?

As I'm standing on the edge of the world looking down
I could jump and fly or fall to the ground
But I'll get to you somehow
And I will get there someday
I will be the still flame
I will hear my daddy play the sweetest sound a band can make
In my dreams and when I'm awake

(If I believed in Heaven I'd pray But it's only here and now and now is not quite home)

About a normal person wanting to connect to something bigger - the point of writing songs -
Who out there can here you?
And the ghosts of every age I've ever been live in my head It's a charm or curse, or something worse
