emptiness has never been so comforting starving
crawling extinction.
I don't exist, she said "I don't exist than why do all things change?"
framework fall killing lies you once told me what I bleed
is what's left you stained hands empty again.
why do all things change? why? zodiac sepsis locusts crawl through my lungs.
you will suffer for their wish your angels are hung.
I have been drowning in my mind needing for something that I must find.
the sun cannot shine without the two
i am searching for the memories of you zodiac collect for your afterlife.
the loneliest time in my life is when I am with you, zodiac.
I never knew you. you left me alone to burn zodiac
sepsis locusts lay on my tongue reveal all the crimes
that I have done
zodiac don't leave me alone again.
please take me to a place with no more pain.
zodiac take my life away.
