Ohhhh

Two o'clock in the morning
Walk up to the phone ..,
I wonder who could it be,
And my man said go back to sleep.

Try to act like it's cool
then it walked in the other room,
I heard it whispering,
He don't wanna talk in front of me.

Something is going on,
Why always secrets be.
And my feeling is very strong,
Starting to question who,
Tell me who is she,
That's calling very night,
Baby this is gonna be the last time.

Chorus:

If you wanna go, be on your way
'cause obvious you don't really wanna stay,
You ain't gotta worry about me,
You're the kind of lover I don't need.
If you wanna go, be on your way
Can't believe you did it in my face,
You ain't gotta worry about me,
You're the kind of lover I don't need.

I got the phone .. today
Look of all the cars that you made,
I'm waiting on you, you, You'd better tell the truth
How long has it been
Is she more than a friend,
And I got the right to know

Before I close the door.

Something is going on,
Why always secrets be.
And my feeling is very strong,
Starting to question who,

Tell me who is she,
That's calling very night,
Baby this is gonna be the last time.

Chorus:

If you wanna go, be on your way
'cause obvious you don't really wanna stay,
You ain't gotta worry about me,
You're the kind of lover I don't need.
If you wanna go, be on your way
Can't believe you did it in my face,
You ain't gotta worry about me,
You're the kind of lover I don't need.

How can I trust you,
You made me look like a fool,
But I gave you all my love ...
Baby when she hears you
Tell me what will you do
Don't come running back to me,
'cause baby I'm through.

[2 x Chorus:]

Just go, just go, just go,
Just go, just go, just go.
Just go.
