When you're tempted by another
Who could thrill you through and through
Think of all the love I'm giving
Love I'll share with only you.

Hold to my unchanging love
Hold to my unchanging love
Don't go looking for another
Hold to my unchanging love.

There are men who long to hold you
And they'll promise you the world
Don't be fooled by all their woeing
I want you to be my girl.

Baby, hold to my unchanging love
Hold to my unchanging love
Don't go looking for another
Hold to my unchanging love.

Baby, Won't you hold to my unchanging love...
