I pinch myself when I wake up each mornin'
'Cause I'm constantly amazed when I see
Exactly everything I've always wanted
But I cant believe she gives it all to me

Mmm, lips that warm my face with mornin' kisses
Arms that reach to hold me tenderly
And love that always satisfies completely
But I cant believe she gives it all to me

She gives me more than any one man deserves
I who have everything am nothing without her
Somehow she knows I need her desperately
I can't believe she gives it all to me
