If you ever want somebody to love
If you ever get to feeling blue
If you ever want a little company
Then I'll come running to you.

It's been so long since I held you tight
But I still dream about you darling every night
I don't care who was wrong or who was right
I'll come running to you.

Now all my love belongs to you
That's just the way that I feel
And if you'll give me the least little chance
I'd show you my love is really real

Well, I'm not a bit ashamed to sit here and wait
If that's all what I've got to do
I'll be around if your new love turns you down
I'll come running to you.

Now all my love belongs to you
That's just the way that I feel
And if you'll give me the least little chance
I'd show you my love is really real

Well, I'm not a bit ashamed to sit here and wait
If that's all what I've got to do
I'll be around if your new love turns you down
I'll come running to you...
