Well, my heart cries,
Cries for ya baby
It just cries and cries
And I don't mean maybe.

Well, my heart sinks whenever you're near
But it just dies when you're not here
You'll never know, know, know
How my heart dies.

Ahhh, You seem to think that it's so funny
But I'm not mad dear, not one bit honey
I must have cried a million times
I just can't get you off of my mind
You'll never know, know, know
How my heart dies.

A long, long time we've been together
We thought that feelin' would last forever
But someone else up and told me
Long before you up and left me all alone.

You'll never know, know, know
How my heart dies. Ahh, My heart cries
It just cries and cries, cries for you baby
You'll never know, you'll never know, know, know
You'll never know, you'll never know, you'll never know
Ahh, My heart cries, it just cries and cries,
Cries for you baby...
