She wants the world to know
She loves me so
My woman can only see
The good in me.

She never had the things she needed
Just enough to get by,
And many times I've done her wrong
Late at night I've heard her cry
She don't complain of the bad she's had
And the things that used to be.

She wants the world to know
She loves me so
My woman can only see
The good in me.

She soon forgets
The many times I've hurt her
And accepts me for what I am
Not what I should be
And for all the bad she's had
She just lives for me to love her.

And she can only see
The good in me.

--- Instrumental ---

Where did love come from,
Why does it stay
How can she go on this way
What happened to all the dreams
I had for her just yesterday.
It's not her fault they didn't work out
All my dreams were fantasy
Still by my side she walks with pride.

She wants the world to know
She loves me so
My woman can only see
The good in me...
