My heart is beating so, just to know she is near
And, when she speaks me name, her voice is all I can hear
The feeling she feels deep down inside
It touches my heart, brings tears to my eyes.

'Cause, she's in love
When she looks at me, it's plain to see
That she's in love
She's just not in love with me.

As she gently takes my hand and tells me she's his for the taking She'll never understand the way that my heart is breaking
We've been such friends, so I'll never tell
How I love her so, while I wish her well.

She's in love
When she looks at me, it's plain to see
That she's in love
She's just not in love
And, she'll never be
She's just not in love with me...
