I've got a Teenage Heart
Now that we are apart,
Though we're just seventeen
Somehow we seem much older.

I don't know where to start
I guess I play the part of Every teenage boy whose lost
His real true love.

And to our senior friends,
We were like all of them,
But now that we're apart
They call us teenage heart.

(Repeat X2)

I've got a teenage heart
Now that we are apart,
Only you come back to me
And our love will be much older.

(Repeat X3)...
