The Clown

You love the way it makes me feel when I can't catch my breath
Like walkin' on a high wire, Lord, it scares me half to death You're always high above me and I'm always fallin' down
Our love's just a circus baby, and I'm just the clown

And I'll do tricks for you, just like you want me to
I'll do anything it takes just to hang around
I'll paint a smile for you to cover up my frown
Cause our love's a circus and I'm just the clown

Everyone's in love with you, but they just look at me and laugh
And I'll bet when they see me cry, they think it's just an act Ah, but someday when it's over and we bring the big top down
You can say it was one big circus and I was just the clown

And I'll do tricks for you, just like you want me
to
I'll do anything it takes just to hang around
I'll paint a smile for you to cover up my frown
Cause you love the circus, but you don't love
the clown
