As I turn back the pages of time
And once more you're in my heart and on my mind
They're unchanged by the passing of years
All alone stands the tower of tears. (tower of tears.)

Just a wooden frame and one old rusty bell (bum, bum, bum, bum)
With a million sad stories to tell
Hidden there 'neath the rock and rill (rock and rill)
We pledges our love 'neath the tower of tears. (tower of tears.)

But as time passed on
I started losing you
And now you are gone
What am I gonna do?

Now the tower bell refuses to chime (oo, oo, oo)
'Cause somehow it knows that you're no longer mine
It shared our secret down through the years (through the years)
Now, I'm alone 'neath the tower of tears. (tower of tears...)
