You made me what I am today
Brought me fortune and fame
Before you came my way,
Things just weren't the same.

My hopes and my fondest dreams
Have all come true
I'm a king on a throne with treasures unknown
And it's all because of you.

You made me what I am today
You and you alone
And if you should ever stray
I just couldn't go on.

I'd give everything to you,
My mansions so tall.
Deep within my heart I know if you should ever go
They would crumble and fall.

--- Instrumental ---

You made me what I am today
Brought me fortune and fame
Before you came my way,
Things just weren't the same.

My hopes and my fondest dreams
Have all come true
I'm a king on a throne with treasures unknown
And it's all because of you...
