Look out! there's a sunny day
I do believe it's headed your way.
You've been crying long enough
But you'll forget what a teardrop was.

You've got a good love coming
You've got a good love coming
You've got a good love coming
To you tonight.

Knock, knock baby, guess who's here
I've come to make one thing clear
No more heartaches, no more fear,
Tonight's the night they're gonna disappear.

'Cause you've got a good love coming
You've got a good love coming
You've got a good love coming
To you tonight.

Hold on, don't you go nowhere
You're gonna get it as soon as I get there.

You've got a good love coming
You've got a good love coming
You've got a good love coming
To you tonight..
