I like to dance.

Spill out your insides, erase all the bad things. Your life is in color, believe me I've noticed. Selfish constrictor, spill all your insides.

So scared of the bears with the claws and the paws and
the jaws that will cause the end of me.

Slow down, my heart's about to palpitate. Would you hesitate? You're a fake. And I'm so afraid. I'm so afraid.

I'm scared of bears.
Bears dressed so bright, I squint just for life. Tiny lungs are so hard to revive. Constrictor, constrictor. Shake off your metaphors.

Constrictor, constrict her.

So scared of the bears with the claws and the paws and
the jaws that will cause the end of me.

Slow down, my hearts about to palpitate. Would you
hesitate? You're a fake. And I'm so afraid. I'm so afraid.

You spilled out your life. You left it behind. I came to arrive, but you left me inside.

Bears take me home. (x4)
