When will I learn to be alone
How can I learn to let go of you
Everyone can see me
But I can't see myself
Have you seen the key that
Leads to me 'Cause I need to find myself
I'm running out
I'm running out of time
To find myself

Why do I suck at putting smiles on their faces
Why am I only funny to myself
How come no one understands what I say
But I thought I didn't know myself
I hate everyone
Only on certain days
I think you're all
Annoyed by me
So I'll leave, and find myself
