I'm convincing myself
That I'm in love
It's not what I was dreaming of
I love what I see
But it ain't for me
I have to leave, to breathe

The thing is
I could be so much more blue
If I didn't have you
Like a picture
Without a frame
All the bright colors begin to fade

I love what I see, but it ain't for me
I have to leave, to breathe

I like what I see, but it ain't for me x2

The thing is
I could be so much more blue
If I didn't have you
Without a frame
All the bright colors begin to fade

I like what I see but ain't for me x4
