I'm feelin you
the first day was cool
I like how you shielded me from the rain and walked on the left side to keep me safe
the second day was even better I adored the lovely flowers and the sweet letters that you sent to me
The third day was the best I like the way ya soft lips kissed the back of my neck Im so glad we made In time you get what you want im still tryin to feel you out I dont want any doubts in my mind I want to make sure its right i think its sweet and fine theres no need to rush I aint goin no where I can tell ya anxious but i gotta see if you really care
If you really care
I dont wanna lead you on
