"Can't feel a thing"

Love me just like tomorrow recently long to exist
Love me with a touch of the sorrow
That burst open to disappear with the mist

Take me like the young
Days are numbered
I'm highly-strung
I can't feel a thing anymore

Love me just like the ocean cripples upon the shore
Love me with a line of devotion
Going backwards to what was before

Take me like the young
Days are numbered
I'm highly-strung
But I can't feel a thing anymore

I can't feel a thing anymore!..
