You've left me all alone
Sitting at the phone
Wondering when you'll call home

So why'd you run away?
Why must I stay awake
Wondering how long this will take?

But this is just a day
And nothing is going my way
But this is just my life,
This is my life story
And I can never comprehend
Why it always has to end
But this is just my life,
This is my life story

Now I'm seeing you around
I'm keeping my head down
And I hate this fucking town

Tell me how it's gonna end...
Will we be together?
Or will we just be friends.

But this is just a day
And nothing is going my way
But this is just my life,
This is my life story
And I can never comprehend
Why it always has to end
But this is just my life,
This is my life story
