Quick and clever,
You intrigue me
and I adore you.

I spy shyly,
so consumed
devoted to hope.

As this monster rapture paralyzes instinct
Try to realize and keep in mind what you really think,
Then don't be afraid to embrace each moment.

Sidewalks and the sky
Occupy your little eye.

Preception's what the sense or mind notice.

Mine have noticed a familiar fear.

As this monster paralyzes instinct,
Try to realise and keep in mind
What you really think.
Then don't be afraid to embrace each moment.
Beacue you'll only eaiter gain love
Or a lesson
