I cried your name so many times
When I laid there in my bed
Why can't you stop all the lies
When will you ever learn
Now I see that my life's been blue
My dreams won't come true

Like a blade deep within my heart
Could feel it from the start
Like a blade deep within my heart
I was captured from the start

Lonesome tears at a singles bar
One way street can only run so far
Tears from my eyes
How could you be as cold as ice
Breaking down like a fuse
Bad love's gone my way girl
That's nothing I can't conceal

Like a blade deep within my heart
Could feel it from the start
Like a blade deep within my heart
I was captured from the start

Bad love has come my way
Badlands through night and day
I can not conceal oh no what I feel

Like a blade deep within my heart
Could feel it from the start
Like a blade deep within my heart
I was captured from the start
