1506 the time of the ancient and the brave Hell was resurrected, was brought back from the grave, oh no

Through boiling clouds of thunder, a terrifying blast Armageddon with a wicked face, preachers praying for the the last, resort

Fight, fight, fight, the battle still rages on Fight, fight, fight, the battle still rages on Fight, fight, fight, the battle still rages on Fight, fight, fight, the battle still rages on

The stench of burning flesh in the night, a thousand metal hearts on fire Corpses fill up the ground, wrath and despair, everywhere

Rape and slaughter, unholy rites, the darkness closes in The sky is turning red from blood, the holy committing sin, oh no, the battle still rages on Fight..
