Hey hey, sweet love maker
Wont you take me for a spin
Oh double dealing lady
I ain't no stranger to pleasure our sin

Maybe someday she'll bee fishing
For the look that fit's my key
Maybe someday

Shake your money maker
Shake your body and soul
Shake your money maker
No control

There's a crack in the mirror
There's a hole, a hole in the sky
Full moon is rising
And you feel, you wanna hide

Didn't anyone tell you
You can't change those wows?
Didn't anyone tell you
Come on and

Shake your money maker
Shake your body and soul
Shake your money maker
No control

You may think, it's the money no
You may think it's the gold
You think you know the reasons
But baby it's your captured soul
