Why should I run
Why should I hide
From a world that shut me down
You're the man with the crown
We'll take a bad beating
And it's all because we're scared
We looked in the eyes of the people
A strong taste of fear

We all get cheated
Getting out of control
In is time to stop their show

It's the power of greed that's in our souls
It's the power of greed that's in our souls

There's so much to be learned right here
The hangman's Jury is young not old

It's the power of greed that's in our souls
It's the power of greed that's in our souls

There's no time
There's no reason
It's a god damn treason
I look in the eyes babe of lonely men
The world's insane

It's the power of greed that's in our souls
It's the power of greed that's in our souls
