Something, familiar with that wicked face
I have seen it many times

In my, dreams. In my loneliness
A face that haunts me in my dreams.

You're soft, you're sweet, you're everything,
Like the unborn in the womb, you

Face off, show me what's behind the mask
I feel lonely and so cold

Your heart, 1000 roses
Your soul, it means so well, but your blood burns in hell

Something, peculiar with that evil smile
I have seen it many times
It feels like I've been walkin
I've been haunted for my crimes

You're soft, your sweet, you're everything,
Like the unborn in the womb, you're the emperor of throne.

I feel scattered, I breathe emptiness
My mind will soon implode
Your heart...
