Think of every hour think of every day
Think of Annabelle as she takes her stride
Seems the whole wide worlds been taken for her ride
Run and find him
Go Go Go bring him back
Run Run Run like hell
You can't turn your back
Annabelle
Think you have power over everyone you meet
Think the human race has fallen at your feet
For when Annabelle when the mirror breaks
When you loose you'll see no matter what it says
Run and find him
Go Go Go bring him back
Run Run Run like hell
You can't turn your back
Annabelle
Annabelle now don't you think it's time
Annabelle your loosening and it's time to draw the line (draw the line)
Think of all what you do or say
Think of every hour think of every day
Think of Annabelle as she takes her stride seems the whole wide worlds been taken for her ride
Run and find him
Go Go GO bring him back
Run Run Run like hell
You can't turn your back
Annabelle
