Something needs to take your mind off this
Some thing's gotta shine a light
Is it everything that you've ever wanted?
Is it still not quite?

A giant shadow's been cast on your outlook
That something needs to help you shake
Is it everything that you've ever dreamed of?
Is it or is it fake?

Is it? I'm only asking
Is it? No need to reply
Is it coming at you now?
Or is it going by?

Something needs to snap you out of this
Something needs to set you free
Is it what you hoped for?
I hope it is and hope it never happens to me

A giant shackle's been locked, making matters
Much worse than you'd rather they'd be
Is it all you've ever asked for?
Is it or isn't maybe?

Is it? I'm only asking
Is it? No need to respond
Is it right in front of you?
Or is it way beyond?

Is it time for the ever after?
I believe it's tough to find
Is it ending in disaster?
Are you ahead? Are you way behind?

Is it? I'm only asking
Is it? If you don't mind
Is it right in front of you?
Are you ahead or are you way behind?
[Incomprehensible]
