"Thank You, And Goodnight"

Well, I said,
Look at the way she treats you,
And the way she'll never hold your hand.
And when you're out in public,
How she stares at the other men.
And how nothing you do seems right.
And no matter what the subject,
All you do is fight.
You should lose the girl.
You should lose the girl.
We know the two of you won't make it.
You'll slowly lose your mind.
You're not happy, don't try to fake it.
You're upset and we can tell.
Because nothing you do seems right.
And no matter what the subject,
All you do is fight.
I said lose the girl.
You should lose the girl.
