My muscles break when I split in two because I can't stay Here with you My bad dreams my loss of sleep my loss of hair my loss of Trust the way
She tells me to be still and that I know better the Rushing in of ghosts and shards of disbelief Rammed into my head the way I break the mirrors now your Paintings in the trash my songs

In THE MEMORIES OF WHORES our photographs that I can't Look at the same our photographs the Steel trap snapped between my legs the way my tongue has Gone sour the way I wake up shaking
The way I sense your caustic lies the way my stomach Catches fire the way I've LEFT it all BEHIND...
