I guess that Hell has been freezing
And yes there is a fat chance down there
You give me one good reason
Now let me make one thing, perfectly clear

You brought us up to the altar (whoa-oh-oh-oh-oh)
Had no business being up there
I wanted to fuss fail or falter (whoa-oh-oh)
I stood like to Walter for seven long years

One bought a handful of houses
One was an underground hit
One sure was hers, chorus bridge to the verse
The one with the woes that were all over it

I made us a place to be later
And later came soon after that
I made out like things could not be greater
As a matter of fact they fell flat of the back

One bought a handful of houses (whoa-oh-oh-oh-oh)
One was an underground hit
One sure was hers, chorus bridge to the verse (whoa-oh-oh)
The one with the woes that were all over it

The one with the woes all over it [x3]
