Be still my soul as I lay here dying
Relinquish control
The turning point has come

Be still my soul with broken bones here lying Enrapture the Lord
The darker day is done
For the victory has been won

Just a suicide away
Just a suicide away
Just a suicide away from home

So I'm here waiting
Afraid to make the move
Tricklewine and the moonshine that floods into this room

And I can't stop thinking
The streets paved with gold
The fingers laid on razor blade
I am coming home
