Why do I keep fooling myself when I know you love someone else?
Only a fool breaks his own heart

I pretend that I don't see when you walk with him down the street
Only a fool breaks his own heart

I have to admit it, even though you hurt me so girl
I can't forget it
If I'm a man, I'd let you go
It's no use trying to hang on to a love already gone
Only a fool breaks his own heart

I have to admit it, even though you hurt me so girl
I can't forget it
If I'm a man, I'd let you go
It's no use trying to hang on to a love already gone
Only a fool breaks his own heart
Only a fool breaks his own heart
Only a fool breaks his own heart
