Totally depressing, you treat me like a fool,
Am I caught up in the reasons,
For the stupid things you do,
So intoxicated, theres nothing I can say,
And I feel as if I'm bleeding,
From a thousand miles away

All the stars- fading, so are mine,
All the tears- breaking, so must I

You're totally depressing, you treat me like a fool,
Am I caught up in the reasons,
For the stupid things you do,
You're so intoxicated, theres nothing I can say,
But I feel as if I'm bleeding,
From a thousand miles away

And All the stars are fading, and so are mine,
And all the tears- breaking, so must I

[Bridge]

Totally depressing, you treat me like a fool,
Am I caught up in the reasons,
For the stupid things you do,
You're so intoxicating, theres nothing I can say,
And I feel as if I'm bleeding,
From a thousand miles away
