I hate to lead I'm sure no emperor
I'm only looking for the truth
Look at me I'm a model of hypocrisy
Twist and turn you roll your eyes
And then you laugh at me

Karmalita I can't believe what you say
Karmalita you turn my life line on
Karmalita you whisper in my ear
The honey is gold
If it's told from the heart

I can't speak I need to buy a satellite
Your far away, your far away
Look at me I'm building a wall again
Roll away with a sunset now you're history

Karmalita I can't believe what you say
Karmalita you turn my life line on
Karmalita you whisper in my ear
The honey is gold
If it's told from the heart

It's always just the same
The stories they remain
It's always just the same
Your so far away, your so far away
Your so far away

Karmalita I can't believe what you say
Karmalita you turn my life line on
Karmalita you whisper in my ear
Ya, ya ya
Ya, ya ya
Ya, ya ya
The honey is gold
If it's told from the heart
