Loneliness, wow-wow
He's got his claws in me
Loneliness, wow-wow
Seems to be my destiny
Made to cry in the night
No one seems to treat me right
Loneliness, wow-wow
What's to become of me?

Happiness, yeah-yeah
Always seems to pass me by
Happiness, yeah-yeah
Give some to this lonely boy
I could treat someone good
With everything a lover should
Loneliness, wow-wow
What's to become of me?

I'll keep on a-waitin'
And I'll know by and by
Out of the blue, I'll find you
And though the angels in heaven will find
Happiness and cry
For you and I

Loneliness, wow-wow
He's got his claws in me
Loneliness, wow-wow
Seems to be my destiny
Made to cry in the night
No one seems to treat me right
Loneliness, wow-wow
What's to become of me?

Loneliness, wow-wow
Loneliness, wow-wow
Loneliness, wow-wow...
