"Close To Cathy"

I'm so close to Cathy
I know just what she's dreaming of
She always calls me up to tell me
Every time she falls in love

Oh, I'm so close to Cathy
I know her every tender sigh
She loves to cry upon my shoulder
Always for some other guy

Oh, why can't she see
The one true, lasting love
In her life should be me

I'm so close to Cathy
As close as anyone can be
And I'll stay close to Cathy
Hoping some day
She'll feel close to me

I'm so close to Cathy
As close as anyone can be
And I'll stay close to Cathy
Hoping some day
She'll feel close to me
