What to do with Laurie
What to do with Laurie
When I take her out tonight
Shall I hold, oh, so gently
Or should I hold her very tight

Oh, what to do with Laurie
What to do with Laurie
I don't know just where to start
Should I talk about the moon
Or tell her what is in my heart

Should I kiss her on the cheek
Or kiss her on the chin
Or kiss her tiny fingertips
Shall I kiss her pretty nose
Or try to kiss her on the lips

What to do with Laurie
What to do with Laurie
What to do and when and how
Shall I wait until tomorrow
Or tell her that I love her now

What to do with Laurie
What to do with Laurie
What to do and when and how
Shall I wait until tomorrow
Or tell her that I love her now
