Midnight winter walks
Looking out my window at the snow
Wondering where you are
Cause baby it's so cold
Remember that december night
You kept me so warm
Your arms around me tight
Kept me safe through the storm

The snow it falls like angels tears
Sent from heaven just for you and me
Next to the fireplace cuddled up with you
There's no place I'd rather be

The ground it shimmers
Like the stars in your eyes
Reflecting light back to the sky
Your clothes are buddled tight
You kiss me just right
Making angels in the snow
And no one has to know

So kiss my blue lips and hold my hand
Fall asleep in my winter wonderland
The snow flakes in our hair will still be there
Here's to another year
